

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

G. Any person or the Commission's staff may, within 45 days after issuance of the instant notice by the Commission, file pursuant to Rule 214 of the Commission's Procedural Rules (18 CFR 385.214) a motion to intervene or notice of intervention and pursuant to § 157.205 of the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.205) a protest to the request. If no protest is filed within the time allowed therefor, the proposed activity shall be deemed to be authorized effective the day after the time allowed for filing a protest. If a protest is filed and not withdrawn within 30 days after the time allowed for filing a protest, the instant request shall be treated as an application for authorization pursuant to Section 7 of the Natural Gas Act.

Algonquin Gas Transmission Company; Notice of Refund Report

April 25, 1995.

Take notice that on March 31, 1995, Algonquin Gas Transmission Company (Algonquin) tendered for filing with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (Commission) an Order No. 94 refund report in accordance with the Commission's order issued October 16, 1985 in Docket No. RP85-183-000.

Pursuant to the Commission's October 16 Order, Algonquin was authorized to track the direct billing of Order No. 94 costs from Consolidated Gas Transmission Corporation, now CNG Transmission Corporation (CNG), and flow through the amounts to its customers on a concurrent basis. The order also required an Order No. 94 report within 30 days of Consolidated's billing to include detailed billing and allocation information.

On March 3, 1995, Algonquin received a refund payment from CNG of certain Order No. 94-related amounts that CNG received from Texas Gas Transmission Corporation. Algonquin states that it will disburse the refund of $2,812.93 to its customers through its monthly billing on April 7, 1995. Algonquin further states that the report shows that Algonquin has allocated the refund (and additional interest of $24.05, computed at the FERC interest rate, from March 3 through April 7) on the basis of each customer's commodity volumes for the period August 1, 1980 to December 31, 1984.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rule 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211). All such protests should be filed on or before May 2, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection.

Algonquin Gas Transmission Company; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

April 25, 1995.

Take notice that on April 19, 1995, Algonquin Gas Transmission Company (Algonquin) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Fourth Revised Volume No. 1, the following revised tariff sheet, effective May 19, 1995:

Second Revised Sheet No. 687

Algonquin states that the purpose of this filing is to facilitate the timely filing of Algonquin's annual fuel reimbursement quantity deferral allocation, by revising its tariff to reflect a twelve-month accumulation period commencing August 1 and extending through July 31.

Algonquin states that copies of this filing were mailed to all affected customers of Algonquin and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with 18 CFR 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before May 2, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

April 25, 1995.

Take notice that on April 19, 1995, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, the following tariff sheet to be effective May 4, 1995, the effective date of Order No. 577.

First Revised Sheet No. 351

First Revised Sheet No. 352

First Revised Sheet No. 353

First Revised Sheet No. 354

First Revised Sheet No. 575

First Revised Sheet No. 585

In Order No. 577, the Commission modified its capacity release regulations to permit shippers to release firm capacity for a period of one calendar month or less without having to comply with advance posting and bidding requirements. A related change provides for a 28 (rather than 30) day hiatus during which shippers that released capacity at less than the maximum rate under the exemptions cannot re-release that capacity to the same replacement shipper at less than the maximum tariff rate.

Columbia states that the above-referenced tariff sheets are being filed to revise the capacity release and assignment provisions and forms in the tariff to reflect changes mandated by Order No. 577. In addition, Columbia is shortening the duration of minimum posting periods for capacity release transactions.

Columbia states that copies of its filing have been mailed to all firm customers and affected state regulatory commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. All such motions or protests should be filed on or before May 2, 1995. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make
