

Commerce will conclude that an order is no longer of interest to interested parties and will revoke the order if no domestic interested party objects to revocation, and no interested party requests an administrative review by the last day of the fifth anniversary month.

Within the specified time frame, we received an objection from domestic interested parties to our intent to revoke this countervailing duty order. The Department determined that these domestic interested parties had standing as an interested party under 19 CFR 355.2(i) with respect to all like products covered by this countervailing duty order. See Memorandum to the File from Martina Tkadlec, Case Analyst, April 12, 1995, which is on file in the Central Records Unit (Room B-099 of the Main Commerce Building).

Therefore, because the requirements of 19 CFR 355.25(d)(4)(iii) have not been met, we will not revoke the order.

This determination is in accordance with 19 CFR 355.25(d)(4).

Dated: April 8, 1995.

Joseph A. Spetrini,

Deputy Assistant Secretary for Compliance.
