

-
- We would very much like to obtain your suggestions about what could be done better by governments at all levels if another disaster occurs here or in another big city. What would your main suggestions be about program features? About federal assistance? About state assistance? About local assistance?