About the Survey

The questions and answers you are about to read came from our women survey at <http://www.redhotsextips.com>. We used in this document the most complete and best quality responses that we received from our survey. We also took the ones that were the most representative of all the responses that we received.

Most men will never have the chance to ask over 100 women what they want in a lover or what they like in bed and get a true uninhibited answer from them.

We believe this is a rare opportunity to look into a woman's mind and see her true feelings and desires about sex and what makes a man a great lover. While all women are different in their needs there are some common desires and themes that can be gathered from this survey. With this insight you can become more of what your woman desires and truly become a great lover.

This survey was completely anonymous and the participants were asked to make up an alias (fake name) for the survey. Therefore they felt that they could divulge their most intimate secrets and desires with us so that we can help you become a better lover. We would like to give much thanks to all of the very open and sharing women for their contribution that made up this survey and this document.

The Survey Results

As you read through the results you will begin to see constants and themes arise and you seem to read the same types of answers to the same questions over and over again. This is good because then you will be able to Identify what women in general want as opposed one woman's individual desire which may be what another absolutely detests or hates. As all women are different in their individual desires, many of them share the same desires enough for this information to be extremely useful for us as men.

The survey is uncensored and has only be run through MS-Words spell checker with the grammar correction turned of as we wanted to the leave the answers as raw and untouched as possible, while still being readable. You will also notice that the font size is smaller than this text. This is to save space in the document for smaller file size and quicker download as there are over 100 pages of survey results. If you are viewing this document in adobe acrobat which is it's preferred format, click the zoom key to make the text larger if you need to.

At the end of the section below is our summary of the result in the form of a questionnaire filled in with our commentary on what we found to be the most common themes and information as well as how this information can be used by you to become a better lover..... So grab a drink, a snack and sit back and relax as you read and learn women really want in bed in there own words and keep both hands on the keyboard ;)

What makes a man a great lover?: To me a good lover is a man that is willing to take his time and realize that sex is more than cumming. When a man kisses you everywhere, and touches you slowly and softly. When a man is sensitive to what you're feeling.

Does penis size matter?: For me it doesn't matter. The man that I'm with now is small and there are times that I wished that he was bigger, but when he's inside of me and he can hit my G-spot with every thrust, it doesn't matter and now I couldn't picture him another way.

Then I said it, and for the first time I meant it, While I never said to him I had said it to others and didn't mean it, this time it was real.

Describe your favorite sexual technique that when done to you absolutely drives you wild in bed?: When a man sucks on my clit and plays with it with his tongue. Or when he puts 1 finger in me hitting my G-spot, another in my ass, and 1 playing with my clit.

Please give us your age: 27

What makes a man a great lover?: His ability to be gentle and learn what a woman likes from her responses and not solely from his previous experiences.

Does penis size matter?: There's an advantage both ways. If it's typical or small there won't be the fear from the woman that it will hurt her. But if it's larger than normal then you have to help her get past the fear but at the same time she will be impressed and find it more sexy just because in our society bigger is better. She knows that's not necessarily true, but it's like with breasts, bigger is considered better.

What is the perfect penis size?: I would say 8 inches long and 3 inches wide

Which matters to you most Size or Sexual Technique?: Technique of course, that's what gives you the orgasm, no one gets a good sexual experience from a big dick but from good hands and tongue.

Describe in detail your most memorable favorite pleasurable intense or erotic sexual experience you have ever had? And what made it so?: When my man was biting my shoulder and had his fingers circling around my clit and vagina, because it's like the two sensations met in the middle of my body and made me so wet he lifted me up by the butt and licked out the wet before it could drip anywhere. It was so cool because he was so enthusiastic about the oral and basically satisfying himself with my body; it was very satisfactory for me seeing him so involved getting something from what he was doing to me that it was better than if he was actively just trying to turn me on.

Describe your favorite sexual technique that when done to you absolutely drives you wild in bed?: barely touching the tongue to the clit hood and just breathing on it or going all around softly while scrapping my stomach with his nails

Applied to Receiving Oral Sex:: having the man tell me how it's making him feel while I'm licking his penis, it turns me on more to give a man oral who really knows how to enjoy it than when it is done to me.

Applied to Intercourse:: when he lets me direct him inside of myself because I know best how to get him in giving him pleasure without hurting me.

What is your favorite sexual position?: woman on top

Do you enjoy Anal Sex?: Yes

Have you ever had Anal Intercourse?: Yes

What Anal Sex Activities do you enjoy?: Oral would be first fingering would be second. Oral Anal is ten times better than sex because you feel the soft tongue going in and shaping to the contours of your anus and the wet feeling is very pleasurable. Fingering just feels great, I don't know how to explain why but it knocks all the wind out of you and just about gives you an orgasm right there.

What do you enjoy or dislike about Anal Sex?: enjoy definitely, you can feel everything more intensely than in your vagina.

What advice would you give men that want to try anal intercourse with their partners?: make sure there is PLENTY of lubrication, or you can tear the tissue of the rectum. Also take your time before penetration. First oral then fingering then sex. Bring it up to her as something like "try everything at least once and if you don't like it you don't have to do it again" then make it like a type of opening up to her type of subject and she won't turn you down.

Describe your favorite sexual technique that when done to you absolutely drives you wild in bed as applied to Anal Sex?: rubbing up and down my torso while he is going in from behind doggie style.

Have you ever had a G-Spot Orgasm?: no, sorry.

Have you ever experienced Female Ejaculation?: no, sorry

Please tell us your most desired sexual fantasy?: To be fondled and basically physically explored while I was sleeping. The person doing it has to be very careful not to wake me up, so very slowly taking off the blankets, pull up the clothing; or down as the case may be and just exploring all parts of me as if they had never seen a woman's body.

Please give us your age: 22

What makes a man a great lover?: When you can tell that he is totally devoted to you and only you. Plus only "knowing" each other- my husband and I are the only partners that either of us have had! We do not know anything but each other and we continually strive to pleasure each other more and MORE!

Does penis size matter?: I cannot say it does. There are plenty of toys out there to reach whatever "excitement" you want, but it is him (your lover) who fulfills you in every way! For me, sex is so much more than a physical activity. When you truly Love your partner, sex is much more satisfying mentally! Don't get me wrong, there is nothing greater than an orgasm, but it feels even deeper when you really know who you are getting it from!!!

What is the perfect penis size?: 5in x 5in

Which matters to you most Size or Sexual Technique?: Definitely Technique! Technique can reach every nook of your vagina for the utmost sensations! Size can actually take away if all you have is a large (or small) cock not doing anything but a in and out motion...

Describe in detail your most memorable favorite pleasurable intense or erotic sexual experience you have ever had? And what made it so?: I was at dinner with my husband. He knew I was not wearing panties and kept running his foot to my vagina. I almost reached an orgasm there at dinner. Afterwards, both of us so horny, we went to one of those automatic car washes and had sex! Luckily no one ever pulled up behind us- either way I would have never noticed. It was GREAT!

Describe your favorite sexual technique that when done to you absolutely drives you wild in bed?: The 69 positioned: although I become to involved in enjoying the pleasure that I become distracted from him, but still I Love to feel his penis and balls on my face!

Do you enjoy Anal Sex?: Yes

Have you ever had a G-Spot Orgasm?: Yes. It's more internal, close to home so to speak. Comes a lot quicker than clitoral stimulation and is more intense.
EXTREMELY INTENSE!! PLEASURABLE, 100%

What is your favorite sexual position?: My favorite position is with me on my back, with one leg in between my partner's legs and the other going over his buttocks, with my partner laying on his side, facing me (obviously otherwise it couldn't work!), with his head and body to the right of me. HITS THE G-SPOT EVERYTIME!!

What Anal Sex Activities do you enjoy?: Anal intercourse. Finger up the ass during vaginal intercourse and oral sex.

Please give us your age: 19

Which matters to you most Size or Sexual Technique?: Sexual technique, because without it, sex is boring frustrating and basically not worth it.

Please tell us your most desired sexual fantasy?: Having group sex, mainly a threesome with two guys penetrating me.

Have you ever had Anal Intercourse?: Yes

Applied to Intercourse:: My partner fingering me during sex, and having a strong grip on both my breasts as I climax.

Describe your favorite sexual technique that when done to you absolutely drives you wild in bed?: Technique? Being fingered by my partner whilst having intercourse, and especially being surprisingly fingered whilst I'm asleep in the middle of the night, that gets revved up instantly!!

Does penis size matter?: I think not. I personally feel that there is the right size for each individual. If it's too long it hurts, if it's too short-well actually this brings me to my next point, it's all in the way he uses it!

A: Size doesn't matter it's the way he uses it that does!!

Describe your favorite sexual technique that when done to you absolutely drives you wild in bed as applied to Anal Sex?: Technique? Slow, gentle entry, followed by slow & gentle thrust 'til warmed up for strong, hard thrashing.

Position: Me on my stomach with partner laying on top of me (stretched out) holding my hands.

What is the perfect penis size?: N/A. No such thing. The way he uses it...

Describe in detail your most memorable favorite pleasurable intense or erotic sexual experience you have ever had? And what made it so?: I was on a bush trek, only thirteen, and the guy I was hooked up with was merely rubbing (gently, sensually) the back of my thighs (I was laying on my side) and he had his hand down my shirt gently touching, massaging and grabbing my breasts (I was wearing a bra). All this gave me an orgasm, it was the first time a guy had ever given me an orgasm and the weirdest thing is I could never have one doing the same things again, my partner has to do more than that to get me going.

Submit: Submit Query

What advice would you give men that want to try anal intercourse with their partners?: Be very slow and gentle and always use heaps of lubricant. Expect to get shit on your dick - hey, it happens!! And it's best to let her lower herself on your penis (at the least, for the first time) so she can cope with it. Don't thrust hard till she is ready to or wants you to. There is a lot of getting used to for most women when it comes to anal intercourse, be patient and remember - practice makes perfect! OH, AND DON'T JUST EXPECT YOUR PARTNER TO WANT TO DO THIS OR EVEN LIKE IT IF DONE.

What do you enjoy or dislike about Anal Sex?: Enjoy: the cold sweat and loss of breath.

Dislike: when I'm not ready, trying to go to the toilet afterwards, when it hurts when I really want to continue doing it but can't because it hurts so bad.

Applied to Receiving Oral Sex:: Gentle, but strong & slow licking progressing to a full-on head shaking from side to side (sucking inclusive) as I come.

Have you ever experienced Female Ejaculation?: Yes, it's just like a gentle gush from your vagina. How, who knows!?

What makes a man a great lover?: The ability to fully appreciate his partners body. This is shown by touching her sensually, telling her she's beautiful (and really meaning it), letting her know which parts of her body he really likes, and constant gentle fondling of these parts.

What makes a man a great lover?: Looking sexy, interested in making their partner enjoy sex.

Does penis size matter?: I've never been with anyone with too small of a penis.

What is the perfect penis size?: 5" long and 1-1/2" around

Which matters to you most Size or Sexual Technique?: Sexual technique, I don't think size matters so much, technique is much more important. Different positions, length of intercourse

Describe in detail your most memorable favorite pleasurable intense or erotic sexual experience you have ever had? And what made it so?: memorable - having sex in the rowhouse I lived in, in Baltimore - standing up - but not facing each other. Also, anyone could have walked into the house. Favorite - new years eve during college, first love, intense night - tried the 69 position. Pleasurable - pretty much every time my husband I make love.

Describe your favorite sexual technique that when done to you absolutely drives you wild in bed?: Haven't really figured that one out yet. I'm still waiting to have an orgasm. I think I have had a couple in my dreams but none in full consciousness. I guess I would have to say - doggy style though,

Applied to Intercourse?: Fast motion, I would like it fast for a prolonged time. It feels great fast.

What is your favorite sexual position?: I have enjoyed all positions. It depends on the foreplay, etc.

Do you enjoy Anal Sex?: No

What makes a man a great lover?: A good lover is one who leaves you satisfied, and I don't mean just an orgasm. They fulfill you mentally, emotionally, and physically. They are open to new ideas, but communicate with you to make sure that you are both comfortable with something before it is tried.

Does penis size matter?: Yes and no...a good lover does not need to have a huge penis to satisfy a women, they just need to know how to use it. However, anything abnormally small(three inches or less when erect) is very difficult to work with, but nothing is impossible!

What is the perfect penis size?: Five to six inches when erect...you do want to be able to be on top of your man with out going through the pain of having his penis always hitting your cervix.

Which matters to you most Size or Sexual Technique?: sexual technique

Describe in detail your most memorable favorite pleasurable intense or erotic sexual experience you have ever had? And what made it so?: The very first time I slept with my husband...we hadn't been dating very long, so everything about our sexuality was new. He was unbelievable! He concerned about my pleasure, unlike a lot of lovers I had before him. The other really great thing was that he had stamina unlike any other lover I had ever been with. Needless to say by the end of the night, I was seeing stars.

Describe your favorite sexual technique that when done to you absolutely drives you wild in bed?: I love it when a man fucks me with my legs closed. In order to get into this position you must start with the missionary, and then move your legs in to touch his. Starting with one leg he puts his on the outside of yours, and then does the other. This position provides a lot of pleasurable friction and almost always guarantees an orgasm for me.

Applied to Receiving Oral Sex:: when a guy uses his hands to stimulate you as well as his tongue, this way both the vagina and the clit are getting pleasure.

Applied to Intercourse:: same as #6

What is your favorite sexual position?: same as #6

Do you enjoy Anal Sex?: Yes

Have you ever had Anal Intercourse?: No

What Anal Sex Activities do you enjoy?: I enjoy stimulation to the outside, but I cannot seem to relax both my muscles and my mind enough to allow penetration (much to my husband's dismay)

What do you enjoy or dislike about Anal Sex?: It can be very painful if it is not done correctly. The nerves are very sensitive, and the tissue is very thin so it takes a lot of working up and a lot of lubrication to enjoy this kind of sex.

What advice would you give men that want to try anal intercourse with their partners?: e honest and open with your feelings, and do not push the subject to far to fast-all you will do is completely turn her off to it. The other thing is that any kind of fantasy fulfillment takes a lot of trust (the close your eyes and I will catch you when you fall kind) and you need to have that outside the bedroom first.

Describe your favorite sexual technique that when done to you absolutely drives you wild in bed as applied to Anal Sex?: none experienced yet

Have you ever had a G-Spot Orgasm?: no

Have you ever experienced Female Ejaculation?: I'm not quite sure, every time I orgasm I end up wetter than if I don't, so I guess if I do experience it, it happens every time I have sex.

Please tell us your most desired sexual fantasy?: My biggest sexual fantasy involves two other parties...one male and one female. The other female gets tied up (hog tied) and then I have sex with her using a strap on. Then the male and I have sex while she is made to watch.

What makes a man a great lover?: He must be considerate of the time it takes a woman to get ready for love making. It's not just wham-bam-thank-you-ma'am sort of thing. Foreplay is very important. On one hand, it prepares the woman physically and mentally for the "main event," on the other, it allows the partners to have more intimate contact. Experimenting with each other on how they like to be touched is also important.

Does penis size matter?: If it's of average size (4"-6"), I don't think it does. Unless, of course the man had a 1" penis, it might effect the experience of intercourse. Anyway, the vagina adjusts to the size of the penis (and if it IS smaller than average, the woman can always do kegal<?> exercises, right?). Plus, it's all in the way the man uses it!

What is the perfect penis size?: Hmm... 6"-8" in length. And about 5" in circumference.

Which matters to you most Size or Sexual Technique?: Sexual Technique! If a man had a 9" penis but didn't know how to please a woman, what use is that? I could please myself with 3" long fingers!

Describe in detail your most memorable favorite pleasurable intense or erotic sexual experience you have ever had? And what made it so?: Most memorable, intense, erotic:

My boyfriend and I started making out (as we always do before making love). As we were undressing each other, we were kissing. He was getting really turned on (I had been teasing him all day..lol) and when I grabbed a hold of his erected penis he suddenly got a surge of energy. He started growling and getting really aggressive with me (which was a surprise, he's usually very gentle and sweet). He began nibbling on my neck and sucking on my breasts kind of roughly. Strangely, it was a turn on! We started making love in the missionary position, then he flipped me over (lol) and we finished off doggy style (which we both enjoy very much). Afterwards, we got into the shower and we fooled around in the tub (that by the way, is very intense).

Describe your favorite sexual technique that when done to you absolutely drives you wild in bed?: During foreplay, when my boyfriend kisses my back. I don't know why, but it drives me crazy! I guess because it doesn't get too much attention there.

Applied to Receiving Oral Sex?: During oral sex, I love it when my boyfriend uses his fingers at the same time. It's a double dose of pleasure!

Applied to Intercourse?: During intercourse, my boyfriend likes to grind up against my pelvis and rotate his hips, so that his penis touches the walls of my vagina.

What is your favorite sexual position?: Doggy style--it can be altered in several ways and still be as pleasurable!!

Or..

When I'm on top--it's really intense!

Do you enjoy Anal Sex?: No

Have you ever had Anal Intercourse?: No

What Anal Sex Activities do you enjoy?: Personally, I don't think I'd enjoy actual anal sex. But we've tried fingering and the mutual feeling is that it only feels good at the rim (just beginning to go in). When my boyfriend masturbates, he enjoys it when I play with his asshole.

What do you enjoy or dislike about Anal Sex?: Dislike: it resembles shitting too much...lol

What advice would you give men that want to try anal intercourse with their partners?: n/a

Describe your favorite sexual technique that when done to you absolutely drives you wild in bed as applied to Anal Sex?: n/a

Have you ever had a G-Spot Orgasm?: Yes. It happens whenever I'm on top. The tip of his penis hits a certain part of my vagina...It's indescribable. It's just a lot more intense than the usual orgasm.

Have you ever experienced Female Ejaculation?: Yes. My boyfriend was fingering me, he began to wiggle his finger back and forth. It was very pleasurable and caused me to ejaculate within seconds.

Please tell us your most desired sexual fantasy?: I've always like making love near/in water. Usually the fantasy involves a waterfall.

Another one is to make love in a public area. We've had several experiences in movie theatres (lol).

What makes a man a great lover?: The ability to be open about anything regarding lovemaking. To try new things. To read manuals, watch videos and use sexual toys. The ability to talk about how it feels and what feels good.

Does penis size matter?: Most times, size does not matter. However, if the penis is too short it does not give the woman the same amount of pleasure as it does not reach as far. If the penis is too short then sexual positions can be limited to the positions where the penis will penetrate deep enough.

What is the perfect penis size?: Good question.

Which matters to you most Size or Sexual Technique?: Sexual technique is what matters most to me. If the partner can find a few good sexual techniques and is sexually aggressive and open to new ideas, then size should not and does not matter.

Describe in detail your most memorable favorite pleasurable intense or erotic sexual experience you have ever had? And what made it so?: My most sexual experience is when I have been pleased orally in several positions (orally being both cunnilingus and anilingus). Then I get on top of the man and ride him with him annually stimulating me.

Describe your favorite sexual technique that when done to you absolutely drives you wild in bed?: See question 5

Applied to Receiving Oral Sex:: All of it, if it is done correctly. Pulling the lips of the vagina. Pushing the walls of the vagina . . . licking and sucking the lips of the vagina and anilingus is good too. Oral sex with me while I am doing him. With me on top, with him on top. With each other on our sides. It is all great. Oh, and a man must be clean shaven for it to be great.

Applied to Intercourse:: Techniques would be the contracting of vaginal muscles. Different pelvic tilts. I guess this is what you are looking for in this question, not too sure.

What is your favorite sexual position?: Rear entry position (doggy style) into vagina.

Do you enjoy Anal Sex?: Yes

Have you ever had Anal Intercourse?: Yes

What Anal Sex Activities do you enjoy?: I think I like anal sex, but would like a bit more experience and info regarding it. I guess I would like fingering and oral, but have only tried anal intercourse sex a half dozen times and half of those times, I sort of enjoyed it.

What do you enjoy or dislike about Anal Sex?: I like the feeling I first get during the rubbing and fingering of anal sex, but when full penetration is met, or the man is too anxious, it can hurt.

What advice would you give men that want to try anal intercourse with their partners?: Let me be your guide. You have to use lubrication. I have to be completely relaxed and want anal intercourse that particular day. Go slow, not too fast or hard (until I let you know to).

Describe your favorite sexual technique that when done to you absolutely drives you wild in bed as applied to Anal Sex?: I like fingering, especially if I am riding the man.

Have you ever had a G-Spot Orgasm?: I think so, but not sure how to explain it.

What makes a man a great lover?: I believe that a man's awareness of his partner is what makes him a great lover. So many times, men tend to concentrate on what they are feeling and doing during sex that they forget about the other person who is there. A man's willingness to learn and ask and do what pleases his partner makes him great as a lover.

Does penis size matter?: Not at all. I personally have had experiences with men of very different sizes and it just did not matter. I have found that it is what he does with his penis that matters, not the size of it.

What is the perfect penis size?: For me it would probably be about 7-9 inches in length and 5-6 inches thick.

Which matters to you most Size or Sexual Technique?: Definitely sexual technique.

It all goes back to the fact that a man doesn't always know how to use what he has. Just because a man may have a large penis, he may have no idea how to give a woman pleasure with it. And vice versa, a man with a smaller penis may know exactly how to please a woman in every way. So you can see that a man's sexual technique is all that ever really matters.

Describe in detail your most memorable favorite pleasurable intense or erotic sexual experience you have ever had? And what made it so?: One particular night when my husband came home with that mischievous look on his face. He began giving me the eye and smiling with that very sexual stare, but a playful smile. From his backpack, he produced some 'just purchased' xxx rated videos and asked me playfully if I would like to watch a "flick" with him. I just couldn't help but smile and laugh. I agreed, but only after I took a shower to relax my mood. As I was in the shower getting ready, he showed up naked and ready to join me. So we took a nice long shower together. We took our care and time to wash each other as thoroughly as possible. We caressed and touched. Kissed and tasted each other for some pre pleasure. To me there is nothing more erotic than a wet man. I could spend hours licking and kissing water from a man.

So after we were done with our most pleasurable cleaning ritual, we went to the living room in our robes to begin our fun in front of the T.V. We laid our pillows and blankets on the floor and started watching the movie. We laughed a little, and made silly comments about the scenes. But the whole time watching the show intensely.

We silently began to caress each other in various places, just enjoying the feel of each other. We went down on each other, one at a time. It was gentle and teasing. Although through we kept watching the video during the four play, things soon became intense and we only concentrated on each other.

We tried many different things that night. We were all over the living room in just about every position we could think of. My favorite would have to have been when I stood on the couch frame and lifted myself so he could take me from behind while standing. He was able to easily reach around and caress my clit while doing me from behind. It was a positively an orgasmic experience. I would have to say that it was probably both the longest and multi-orgasmic experience we had ever had up to that point in our lives together. I could honestly say that for me it was definitely the most in my whole sexual life.

Ever since that night, our sex has been no holds barred and absolutely fabulous.

Describe your favorite sexual technique that when done to you absolutely drives you wild in bed?: I would have to say that having my clit played with during vaginal intercourse would have to be my favorite. It drives me absolutely wild.

Applied to Receiving Oral Sex:: I love a man to put one finger in my vagina as he is licking my clit and the surrounding areas slow and gently. And as he is doing that, I like for him to use his other hand to gently play with one of my nipples.

Applied to Intercourse:: To have my clit played with gently, but not to the point of orgasm. I love to be on the edge, then aggressively pushed over as my partner is ready to cum.

What is your favorite sexual position?: Doggie style.

Do you enjoy Anal Sex?: Yes

Have you ever had Anal Intercourse?: Yes

What Anal Sex Activities do you enjoy?: I enjoy Anal Intercourse.

What do you enjoy or dislike about Anal Sex?: It is a whole different sensation. I enjoy it as long as it feels good. There are times when for whatever reason it just does not feel good, and that is rather disappointing. I would have to say that I dislike the fact that it doesn't always feel good.

What advice would you give men that want to try anal intercourse with their partners?: I would advise them to make sure that it is something that the partner really wants. Then take it easy and be gentle unless you are told otherwise by the partner. Ask them if it feels good. In my opinion that kind of communication during sex is always a plus. Comfort is the key when having anal sex, no matter how experienced you are at it.

Describe your favorite sexual technique that when done to you absolutely drives you wild in bed as applied to Anal Sex?: I enjoy a man to slide a few fingers in my vagina while having anal intercourse.

Have you ever had a G-Spot Orgasm?: Yes I have. I have a rather sensitive back, usually very ticklish. However, when it is licked, and kissed, and sucked the right way I is a definite g-spot for me. This particular orgasm that I had was definitely different from any other I had ever had. The sensations were different.

Have you ever experienced Female Ejaculation?: No I haven't.

Please tell us your most desired sexual fantasy?: See Question #5. :)

What makes a man a great lover?: a man that enjoys giving pleasure, taking his time.

Does penis size matter?: I believe it matters to some not all. I personally like at least a six inch penis. I personally believe because of size it feels more pleasurable. simply put; if it's bigger you can feel it better.

What is the perfect penis size?: 6 to 7 inches long and about 2 inches thick

Which matters to you most Size or Sexual Technique?: Technique, even if a man has a large penis if hes rough or to quick it's not pleasurable, therefore technique matters most.

Describe in detail your most memorable favorite pleasurable intense or erotic sexual experience you have ever had? And what made it so?: whwn my husband and I were separated for about 6 months, we slept together one night and it was the most hot erotic experience of my life! I believe what made it so was we had not had sex with each other in 6 months , and after having sex with someone else who didn"t know what I liked I was very turned on by my experience with my husband who after 8 years knew exactly how to turn me on! we spent the whole night having hot sex! we each got off 3 to 4 times each! needless to say after that we worked out our problems and to this day are still having the best sex!

Describe your favorite sexual technique that when done to you absolutely drives you wild in bed?: I love it when my husband gets really turned on and gets a little forceful with me, such as puts me where he wants me and sticks his dick to my mouth. I like it when he fucks me fast and then slow again. My favorite technique is when I get on top and lay all the way down on him, my back to his chest, then he fingers my clit really lightly just enough to make me want more and more, then stops just before I cum and then does it again and again ect. until I beg him to make me cum!

Applied to Receiving Oral Sex:: I like it when my husband starts by kissing and sucking my nipples until I'm hot, then moves down to my pussy and starts by licking me very softly and slowly until I'm practically screaming for release! Then he stops and moves back to my nipples again and sucks them harder this time, until I'm a little calmer and then he starts licking and sucking my clit again! It also..lutely drives me wild! finally he sucks my clit hard until I have the most awesome orgasm ever! I just love how my husband does that!

Applied to Intercourse:: I like it when my husband fucks me from behind slowly and deeply. It feels awesome!

What is your favorite sexual position?: me on top back to chest

Summary

Question #1 - Question #1 - What makes a man a great lover?

We found that the willingness to please a woman and put her sexual desires and needs equal or before the mans was a very common theme. And many women also expressed that the need to feel that they are important to their lover and feel emotional involved rather than just physically.

We also found that many women would like their partner to actually ask her what she wants. For instance could be with a women that has certain desires that you will never know about just because you never asked. So ask her outside of bed, "What kind of sex do you like?", "Describe to me what is great or perfect sex to you?", When you have this information you have her blueprint for great sex! So now you can give it to her. When in bed don't be afraid to ask her if something you are doing to her feels good or if it feel better than something else, let her guide you.

Another theme that was mentioned allot was not to rush, take your time and pay attention to the women whole body and kiss her all over not just the breasts and genital areas.

Question #2 - Does penis size matter? (Be 100% Honest and tell us why it does or does not?)

For some women penis size does matter allot! And for others it does not. The funny thing is some women would say not really but then when answering the next question "What is the perfect penis size?" they would say 8" 9" long which is about the top 10% of penis size, and others would say yes I want a big one and say 6", so either they have not measured a penis or there perceptions of big are very different....

Question #3 - What is the perfect penis size? (Length & Thickness if you wrapped a tape measure around it.)

Most women said between 6.5" - 7" and around 5"circumfrence, it is also clear that some women did not understand the measurement of circumference as some of the measurements were so small that they could have only been in diameter. There are always going to be women that just want a huge man, so if you are not really big either use our Penis of Steel Manual to gain size or find another women that does not care as much. And it's not always that you are small, some times they are just too big!

Question #4 - Which matters to you most, Size or Sexual Technique? (Please explain why?)

Almost 99% said technique matters more than size and even those that said size mattered also said that without technique what was the point! Better get those techniques and ejaculatory control down, read our Penis of Steel Manual..... Also we notices that the younger women (18-21) were more concerned with size that the older more experienced ones (25+).

Question #5 - Describe in detail your most memorable, favorite, pleasurable, intense or erotic sexual experience you have ever had? And what made it so? Three main themes seemed to come up here one was the first time they had really great sex with a new lover. And the other was when they had sex in an exotic location or a semi-public location in which there was risk to being caught and usually both combined. So this tell us that the fear and risk of being caught made the event much more exciting. While I doubt any of them actually want to be caught, they seem to enjoy the risk and the newness of the whole thing. So how can we use this information? Well, first you can in you own house, have sex all over the house rather than your bedroom, this will spice things up a bit, and you can leave the curtains open (this is better if you actually think that no one can see you, that way you have the risk but not actually be embarrassed by your neighbors, if you have nosey neighbors it might not be a good Idea, it's up to you) Second, you can find a semi-public location that you can have sex in, (in a park in safe area, on the beach hidden from view, on a balcony, in a restroom with very low traffic, in dressing room, but make sure ahead of time that they don't use hidden cameras in the store or you will end up on film and maybe on the internet....) Be creative and use your imagination, one girl said her fantasy was to have a guy go down on her in a Ferris wheel at the amusment park, elevators can also be good, if you want to risk it.... Or in your office at work but not if it will put you job at risk!

Question #6 - Describe your favorite sexual technique, that when done to you absolutely drives you wild in bed? In this question the answer will be up to your woman , so ask her this question..... Most women responded with oral sex, with there partners fingering them as the same time.....

Question #7 - Describe your favorite sexual technique, that when done to you absolutely drives you wild in bed when applied to:

Applied to Receiving Oral Sex: Once again you need to ask her this question. But most women wanted the man to go slow and take his time and really get into it and to finger them as well at the same time...

Applied to Intercourse: Also ask her. But it seems that they want variety, start ver slow and gentle at first then slowy over 10-15 minutes gradually build up to more forceful and faster thrusts, and some of the women even wanted it hard at the end.....

Question #8 - What is your favorite sexual position? Again and Again ask her.... But the most common are Doggy Style and on her back with her legs on your shoulders.....

Question #9 - Do you enjoy Anal Sex?

On this one there really does not seem to be a middle ground, women either absolutely love it absolutely hate it!!! And they make it very clear...

Question #10 -Have you ever had Anal Intercourse?

It's funny many of the women that hate anal sex actually never tried it, so I guess that we can see that their opinion must have been formed by either their preconceived notions and by how society views anal sex (which by the way seems to be changing) and also from what they have heard from there friends have told them about their negative experiences with a uneducated lover.

The women that did not like it that had tried anal sex expressed that it hurt or that their lover rushed and did not take enough time.....

Question #11 - What Anal Sex Activities do you enjoy? (fingering, intercourse, oral, etc....) Most of the women that had not tried it or hate it said none... But some that did not like anal intercourse, did like anal fingering and licking (your women must be extremely clean before you try anal licking, or health problems could result, also never insert anything that has been inside your partners anus or rectum into her vagina or a serious infection could result).

Question #12 - What do you enjoy or dislike about Anal Sex? (Describe in detail) The women that hate it said it hurt's, some that had not tried it even said it hurts as well (how would they know?, the truth is that it can be very painful, and you can injure a women, you use don't use the proper techniques and plenty of lubricant) So if you can give these type of women a very pleasurable experience they might change their minds...

The other main theme was that it was dirty and gross... For those women it will be much harder for them to change, because there block is not a fear of pain, but a mental block and you must get them to view anal sex in a more positive light.

Question #13 - What advice would you give men that want to try anal intercourse with their partners? The advice here was very good.

1. Use plenty of lubricant (use a non-oil based, like Astroglide or Wet)
2. be very gentle, go slowly, stop when she says stop.
3. Start by anal fingering. Start with one finger then slowly work to 2.
4. Then after she is enjoying the fingering then slowly enter her. (Use the tease and please technique from the "Penis of Steel manual"
5. Thrust very slowly and gently at first! After she is enjoying in and you feel her anus is a little looser and relaxed you can gradually build up speed but apply more lubricant first.

Also the spoons position for a first time experience, make entry much easier and should reduce the chance of pain.

REMEMBER:

It should not ever hurt, if it hurts you are doing it WRONG! IF it hurts her stop.... And start slower another time.....

Question #14 - Describe your favorite sexual technique, that when done to you absolutely drives you wild in bed as applied to Anal Sex?

Of the women that enjoyed anal sex, the biggest theme was being fingered in their vagina or having their clit stimulated either by hand or a vibrator during anal sex. The other was riding on top the man during anal sex (which give the woman control over the speed and depth of the thrusting). But as always ask your partner what she likes...

Question #15 - Have you ever had a G-Spot Orgasm? If so, please describe in detail the experience and how it differs from your normal orgasms? Many women did not know what or where there G-spot was. Others did and had them regularly. (The G-spot is located, about 2-3 inches inside the woman vagina on the top wall if she is laying on her back. It's about the size of dime or a nickel and will swell when she is very excited.)

Question #16 - Have you ever experienced Female Ejaculation? If so describe the experience and how you are able to have them?

Very few women out of the 100+ we sampled did, but some did on occasion but had very little clue what caused it, other did now and still a couple of them had them fairly regularly.... For most of them that did it involved G-Spot Stimulation of some sort.....

Question #17 - Please tell us your most desired sexual fantasy? Please describe in detail?

This is a highly unique question and I want say that for many women fantasys are just fantasys and they don't want to live out and for others it is something that they really would like experince. For example many women (not too many in this survey though) fantasize about being raped, but in truth they really don't want to be raped! But this fantasy lets them escape from all of the responsibility that comes from sex, such as the beliefs, "If I sleep with a man too soon or more than one man I am a slut" or " I have to be in love to have sex" or "Sex outside of marriage is immoral", so in her fantasy she can experience all of these things without judgement or guilt, because after all it was beyond her control she did not do it she was raped! Also most of the times women that have these rape fantasies, are raped in there fantasies by good looking men that they would naturally be turned on by in the first place, or by a faceless stranger with a good body, neither of which is reality... I want to emphases that WOMEN DO NOT WANT TO BE RAPED!!!! And that you should never force a women do anything that she does not want to do..... If you want play out a rape fantasy with a women you should talk about it with her first.....

Another fantasy many women have is to have sex with several men at the same time.... I don't recommend actually doing it as it can destroy a relationship, as very few people can share there partners with out it causing jealousy, anger, resentment, etc... The one exception is when one of the partners is bi-sexual but then it still may cause the feeings above if you can't handle the experience...

Which brings me to another common fantasy, where a women wants to be with another women or a threesome between her man and another women. While this may just be a fantasy that could just remain that way, I don't encourage you to push a woman to be with another woman with or with out you, unless you are prepared for this to become a regular part of your life even of sharing your woman with other women, and also having her have sex with the other woman (and maybe with that other girl's man without your knowledge) Sometimes it's harder to close a door than to open it....

If you do want to have threesome, and your woman does not, don't push that either as, most women don't like to share their man, the one exception is if the woman is bi-sexual, and then be prepared to deal with the above and discuss all aspects and possibility of outcomes with your partner first.....

So in closing on this question, I would like to say some fantasies are meant to stay fantasies. Others such as sex on the beach or a beautiful experience that she desires with you, such as a romantic trip or sex with you in an exotic place, by all means make them happen and give her, her fantasy and she will love you for it.....

In closing
