

Thousands of White farmers have been murdered by Blacks in South Africa since the Whites agreed in 1993 to let the Blacks run the country. Many of the murders have been accompanied by torture, rape, and mutilation. The American media pushed hard for Black rule in South Africa, telling everyone that we must bring the injustice of White rule to an end. They never tired of telling us every day before 1993 how bad things in South Africa were. Now they are strangely silent.

There's no more illuminating example, no better lesson for White Americans than what has happened and is happening in South Africa. That, of course, is exactly why the controlled mass media here remain silent when White South African farmers are slaughtered, when White South African women are gang-raped, and when many other very educational things happen there.

Multiracial societies do not work and cannot work. If we permit Whites to become a minority in America in the next century as the Jews are planning, then we will suffer a fate similar to that of Whites in South Africa.
