

Gas high enough yet?

WE KNOW the Iraq war wasn't fought over oil — or now it would be inexpensive. We certainly know now that the war wasn't fought over 'weapons of mass destruction.' Then what was the war really for?

"If it were not for the strong support of the Jewish community for this war with Iraq, we would not be doing this." — Representative Jim Moran, as quoted in the Reston Times

"Israel long since would have taken us to the weapons of mass destruction if there were any or if they had been removed. With Iraq no threat, why invade a sovereign country? The answer: President Bush's policy to secure Israel. ...led by Wolfowitz, Richard Perle and Charles Krauthammer... Acting militarily, we have created more terrorism than we have eliminated." — Senator Ernest Hollings, as quoted in the Charleston Post and Courier

"I think it's the worst kept secret in Washington. That everybody — everybody I talk to in Washington has known and fully knows what their [Jewish Neo-Con] agenda [in Iraq and the Middle East in general] was and what they were trying to do. ...because I mentioned the neo-conservatives who describe themselves as neo-conservatives, I was called anti-Semitic. The trouble is the way they saw to go about this is unilateral aggressive intervention by the United States — the take down of Iraq as a priority. And what we have become now in the United States, how we're viewed in this region, is not an entity that's promising positive change. We are now being viewed as the modern crusaders, as the modern colonial power in this part of the world." — General, Anthony Zinni, Retired, recently chief of the U.S. Central Command and President Bush's former Middle East special envoy, 60 Minutes interview of 21 May 2004

We agree.

The chaos caused by the unnecessary invasion of Iraq on Israel's behalf has caused chaos and uncertainty in the Middle East—and that means higher prices for you and me, and not just for gas; for everything, eventually. As millions of Third Worlders invade the U.S. through Mexico, our government is being run by people who are more concerned about Israel's borders than our own. They have brought terrorism upon this country because of their push for unlimited economic, diplomatic and military support for Israel.

It's time to bring our troops home and put them to work guarding our own border.

Join with us in accomplishing this patriotic task.
